Why
SØSR

Why SOBR

At the heart of SOBR is a simple but powerful idea: you don't need alcohol to create meaningful connections or memorable experiences.

SOBR isn't just a bar – it's an experience. A community, a mindset, and a space where conversation, creativity, and collaboration come alive without the influence of alcohol.

Discover our carefully curated selection of alcohol-free wines, beers, cocktails, ciders, and spirits, each crafted to deliver all the flavour, sophistication, and enjoyment of traditional drinks, without compromise.

Because great experiences don't depend on alcohol – they thrive on connection, quality, and purpose.

Why SORR makes corporate sense

Why SOBR makes corporate sense

Safe, inclusive and professional

SOBR offers all the enjoyment of a bar experience, without the alcohol. That means your team and clients can feel catered for, connected and valued, while staying completely clear-headed and compliant with workplace policies.

With every drink at 0.5% ABV (legally alcohol-free) or below, a SOBR event allows guests to:

- Drive home safely after meetings or celebrations
  - Return to work or site duties immediately
  - Avoid breaching company alcohol-at-work policies.

Why SOBR makes corporate sense

Aligned with workplace policies and safety standards

In the UK, many businesses enforce strict no-alcohol policies in line with Health and Safety Executive guidance. Even small amounts of alcohol during working hours can fall foul of these policies and affect both performance and safety.

A SOBR event removes this concern entirely.

Because our drinks are completely alcohol-free, they sit outside alcohol-at-work restrictions, ensuring your company remains compliant while still offering exceptional hospitality.

Why SOBR makes corporate sense

The benefits for employers and teams

- Professional and responsible. No intoxication, no risk
- Inclusive for everyone. Perfect for all beliefs, lifestyles, and dietary needs
- Productive and safe. Attendees can drive, return to work or operate machinery safely
- Modern and forward-thinking. Reflects your company's wellbeing and ESG values
- Memorable and meaningful. High-quality drinks, thoughtful service and a relaxed atmosphere.

Why SOBR makes corporate sense

The win-win approach to corporate hospitality

SOBR helps you deliver the same level of care and experience as a traditional bar service but with a modern, mindful twist.

Your people still enjoy premium drinks, engaging service and connection, without the pressure or consequences of alcohol.

SOBR: Scotland's first alcohol-free bar experience, delivered to you.

A celebration your team can feel good about, during and after.
